Clockwork

When Lovers Become Strangers

Miles Apart

Clockwork
(part one of the 'clockwork trilogy')

She wore a corset of Silver
And a Heart of Pure Gold
A kiss that could stun you
And a hand too hot too hold
She told me of the beast within me
The Beast within us all
She's the wolf she's the moonlight
She's Mother Nature's call

(Chs 1)
If we had love it would be clockwork
Turn the key and watch it go
If we had love it would be clockwork
Turn the key and watch it grow

When she's near to me I quiver,
When she's next to me I swoon
Her ruby lips they hypnotise you
They'll have you howling at the moon
Her hair's as wild as her movement, makes your head spin
She'll use you and confuse you, as she'll draw you all in

(Chs 2)
If we had love it would be clockwork
Turn the key and watch it go
If we had love it would be clockwork
Turn the key and watch it grow
And if the spring would stretch and break
I guess I'll have to set you free
Put the Key in my pocket
Then there'll be just me

Her stories will engage you, they'll take your breath away
Her words will leave you speechless they turn night into day

Her touch is like a whisper, it's there before you know
Don't try and fight it, just sit back and enjoy the show

(Chs 3)

*If we had love it would be clockwork
Turn the key and watch it go
If we had love it would be clockwork
Turn the key and watch it grow
And if the spring would stretch and break
I guess I'll have to set you free
Put the Key in my pocket
Then there'll be just me*

And now the spring has stretched and broke
I had to set you free
I've put the key in my pocket
Now there's only me

When Lovers Become Strangers
(part two of the 'Clockwork Trilogy')

When lovers become strangers
And heartaches lucky breaks
And excuses are all you're left with
And the words were all mistakes
Just because you spread your 'love'
It doesn't mean you're free
It just means you'll keep on searching
For what will never be

(Chorus)

*And the more you rely on the passions fire
And each new fervent moan
The further you get from your heart's desire
And much closer...
To being alone*

So you just got what you wanted,
A 'cheap' and easy thrill
A diversion for a little while Before you serve that bitter pill
Your words were so inviting
So convincing so sincere
There was so little that you said you meant
Just what you wanted me to hear

(Chorus)

You said you meant it when it was said the words of love and lust
But once we said they dissipated
Like specks of wind blown dust
So as you spread your wings and fly
And you imagine you are free
You're tied to what you've left behind
The others just like me

(Chorus)

So as you burn away your bridges
Im sure that you will find
That you won't be surprised I'm sure
By what you've left behind
A trail of empty gestures
The seeds of sadness you have sown
The wounds in hearts along your path
While yours just seems like stone

(Chorus to end)

Miles Apart
(part three of the Clockwork Trilogy)

So much has passed between us – don't know where the time has gone
But it'll never change inside - no matter how far or long
We stepped apart so long ago – as the world beneath us turned Never knowing where we could have gone or what we could have learned

(Chorus)

*But we still smile together – though we are miles apart
No matter what the weather – there's sun in my heart
But we still smile together – though we are miles apart
I know that you're still here in my heart*

So as I sit here by my window – the sun warming me inside
Resting quietly in its glow – and I still feel you by my side
So many years have passed us by – so many faces and many fears
Many memories have begun to fade -along with many of those years

(Chorus)

*Although we're not together – I know we're not apart
No matter where you are – you are still in my heart
But we still smile together – though we are miles apart
I know that you're still here in my heart*

You are still here though your so far away
You are still here though you have gone
I look back as if it was yesterday
And I wish, I wish I'd made you stay
But now we face the future – but I can't leave the past behind
And we'll still go on together – in the separate lives we find
So much has gone between us – don't know where the time has gone
But it'll never change me – in my heart you're the only one

(Chorus)

*Although we're not together – I know we're not apart
No matter where you are – you are still in my heart
But we still smile together – though we are miles apart
I know that you're still here in my heart*
